17. School and Community Involvement

On a separate sheet of paper briefly list your involvement with your school and community (since freshman year). This may include any offices you have held, club memberships, after school activities or work experiences. Include the length of involvement and your class level at the time of participation. If you are not involved, please give reasons for non-involvement.

18. Tell us a little about yourself:

Your responses to the four topics listed below (no more than 500 words) will be used to assess your eligibility to participate in this leadership forum. You may respond by writing your answers on paper, using email, recording your answers on tape, videotape yourself, or come up with other mediums to answer the four topics. Send your responses along with your completed application packet or make note of electronic responses.

- (a) Qualifications - Explain why you want to attend and why you are qualified to be a delegate at this forum.
- (b) Positive Influences - In terms of leadership, please tell us about two people who have positively influenced your life. How have they influenced your life? (Families, teachers, counselors, friends, or public officials are appropriate examples.)
- (c) Experiences as a Person with a Disability - Describe two important experiences you have had as a person with a disability. (Please be specific about your examples as they relate to your disability).
- (d) Future Plans - Describe your employment/career goals. Describe your thoughts on how your disability could impact your employment.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS:*Rules and Guidelines for Student Delegates of the College Leadership Forum

In order to provide a fun, safe learning experience at the leadership forum, all delegates will be expected to follow the rules listed below.

Students are selected to attend this forum because of their leadership skills and potential. Consequently, students are expected to demonstrate their leadership ability, and must:

1. Be punctual.
2. Be at designated places and stay with your assigned group at all times. Attendance at all general sessions is mandatory.
3. Maintain a respectful attitude toward peers, counselors and conference staff.
4. Respect the facilities (maintaining the condition of dormitory rooms and all other areas). Participants will have to pay for property damage they cause and for lost room keys.
5. Smoking and possession or use of illegal chemicals or alcohol are strictly prohibited. (Prescription or other approved medications require verification.)
6. All other campus residence halls and facilities are off limits unless scheduled by staff and cleared by ISU Conference coordinators. MP3's, radios and electronic games may be brought to the forum and used during free time only.
7. Cell phones are permitted but must be turned off in large group and small group settings.
8. Curfew hours: All delegates are expected to be in their own rooms by midnight unless waived by staff supervisor.

Any violations of these rules will result in students being sent home immediately at your own expense. Your application to the College Leadership Forum indicates your acceptance of these rules and guidelines.

AND more importantly, we emphasize that delegates are chosen to attend the forum because of their leadership potential and desire to succeed towards employment. Remember the responsibility that goes with the honor of being selected and plan to have a great time!!
